Dear Hanny, I guess
our letters crossed. I understand exactly how you feel &
agree that it would be foolish to hurry things. Lets just see how you progress
and when you feel like coming down. We just want you to know that you are always welcome.
The weather is rainy and dark. I hope Bill will be able to keep to his rather tight schedule. The planes are delayed here in N.Y.
Can you have a friend in at the hospital to have Thanksgiving with you?
Much Love - L
